SMITH O'BRIEN .- It was mentioned in the news by the Africa, that this distinguished patriot had escaped from Van Dieman's Island. The following is the announcement communicated to the Dublin papers:

REPORTER AND VINDICATOR OFFICE. Limerick, December, 15, 1853, 7 p. m. "We have just been handed a letter from a highly respectable Irishman resident in Melbourne, giving full details of the escape of Smith O'Brien from the penal exile to which the British government doomed him, and from which he has been released by the courage and fidelity of a few Irish friends in the colony, and the sympathizing aid of the commander of an American trading vessel, which was in the offing to take him to the free shores of Columbia. There is no doubt whatever of the fact; and we need not state that we feel considerable pleasure in being the first medium of announcing it. The writer of this letter was one of those who assisted Smith O'Brien in his escape. We may add "that Smith O'Brien was bound by no parole." The New-York Evening Post of Saturday

"We are told, that a letter was received by the steamer of vesterday at the citizen office, announcing the fact that the family of Smith O'Brien, at Limerick, had received authentic be worthy of its destination, and thanking his intelligence of his escape from Australia. The letter, dated at Dublin, stating the particulars of his flight, will appear in the first number of the Citizen, which is the new paper soon to be published by John Mitchell."

The Duel between Mr. Soule and the French Ambassador.—A duel has taken place between the Marquis de Turgot, the French Ambassador and Mr. Soule the American Minister at Madrid, in which Lord Howden acted as second to the Marqis de Turgot. It appears that another duel had previously taken place between the Duke of Alba and Mr. Soule, jun., son of the Minister, arising out of a quarrel to which I alluded some time ago, and which took place at the French Ambassador's ball. It will be remembered that the Duke of Alba was overheard by Mr. Soule speaking disparagingly of the dress of Madame Soule, whom he compared to Mary of Burgundy.

At the time the Duke of Alba declined the cartel sent him by Mr. Soule, on the ground that siing in the Black Sea, and to force them to rethe quarrel was a political one; but since then he turn to Sebastopol, and not allow them to leave seems to have reconsidered the matter. Wanted .- A young Man of industry, ability integrity, &c., &c.

This meets our eye daily in the column of "Wants," and it is as true as the Pentateuch .-Wanted? Of course they are-always wanted. The market can never be overstocked; they will always be called for, and never quoted "dull," or "no sale." Wanted for thinkers-wanted for workers-in the mart, on the main, in the field and the forest. Tools are lying idle for want of a young man; a pen is waiting to be nibbed, a tree to be felled; a school to be instructed.

They talk about staples and great staples .-Honest, industrious, able young men are the great staple in this world of ours. Young man! you are wanted, but not for a Doctor. No. nor a Lawyer. There are enough of them for this generation, and one or two to spare. Don't study "a profession," unless it be the profession of bricklaying or farming, or some other of the manual professions. Don't measure tape if you can help it. It's honorable and honest, and all that, but then you can do better. Of all things, don't rob the women. It's their prerogative to handle silks and laces, tape and thread. Put on your hat then, like a man, don an apron and go out doors. Get a good glow on your cheek, the jewelry of toil upon your brow and a good set of well developed muscles. We would go, if we could, but then we were young, longer ago than we like to think, and you know, when one's "old he can't,"

Besides, if you become a Doctor, you'll have to wait-"because you haven't experience," says an old practitioner; "because you are too young" say all the women. If you are a lawyer, and likely to rise, they'll put a weight on your head, a la Swiss, to keep you under, or if you make a good argument, some old opponent, as gray as a rat, will kick it all over, by some taunt or other, because you were not born in the year one. And so it will go, until you grow tired and soured, and wish you had been a tinker, prehaps "an immortal" one or anything but just what you are.

Be a farmer, and your troubles are over, or rather they don't begin. You own what you stand on, "from the centre of the earth," as they used to say, "up to the sky;" you are independent all day, and tired, not weary at night .-The more neighbors you have, and the better farmers they are, the more the better for you.

An extraordinary rumor was affoat about the naval battle at Sinope. The Turks imagine the affair was planned with the consent of the British, to intimidate them into accepting terms of peace. It penetrates the flesh to the bone, relaxes contracted cords, restoreing use to limbs paralized for years, and where the flesh has wasted away, leaving nothing but skin & bone, excites a healthy action, causing new flesh to grow out and fill up the shrivelled parts. It restores the synovial fluid or joint water, and this is the reason why it has been so successful in diseases of the joints. In affections of the spine, liver, lungs, and kidneys, this great remedy stands before any other ever produced. For ague cake or enlargement of the spleen, it is a specific. For any internal inflamation, you will find it gives great relief. It has no equal in the world for rheumatism-also, cramps, swelling, numbness, weak joints, spine and chest, paias corns, mange, wounds, chilblains, burns, sore throat, bites of insects and reptiles, salt rheum, warts, and indeed nearly all diseases which require an external application, and many others, are greatly benefited by it. It is used externally with great success in goitre or swelled neck, scrofula or king's evil, liver complaint, nervous diseases, &c. For horses or cattle, it is as effectual as for diseases of man. on or before the 12th of April, 1854. The paper is to be worked off with good materials, on new and fashionable type, under a new press: and shall compare favorably, in respect to size, workmanship and reading matter with any sheet in the State. The prime object of the Gazetteer will be to advocate zealously the general internal Improvements of the coun- no Shirts and Drawers; also a large supply of Calf try: Agricultural and Mechanical interests, and and Kip BOOTS, an extra article of Waterproof,

Education and Morality. We will also appropriate a sufficient space for General Intelligence, the Arts and Sciences. and at the same time we will not omit to furnish such of wit and humor as are required to give vitality to the reading circle.

So far as Politics are concerned when it becomes necessary to speak out, on that subject the voice will be Democratic, vet, as before stated, subjects of a local, and more practical character will engross our attention.

In order to insure a sufficient degree of interest to entitle our paper to public patronage, the best pens of the county will be secured to contribute to our columns, on the various subjects

Having had our attention directed to this enmost reasonable terms for cash or produce. Call and terprize by the leading citizens of our community, and believing the same will inure to the general interests of our County, we make this, our introductory bow to a generous public and ask their co-operation and patronage.

We guarantee to subscribers that our promise at this Office for payment during the month of Febshall be fully complied with unless prevented Certificates after the first day of March next, by the intervention of some unforeseen provi-

TERMS-Two Dollars in advance; Two Do lars and fifty cents in six months: Three Dollars at the expiration of twelve months. No money wanted until the subscriber re ceives his paper which will be sent him weekly.
